I. Authority, Power and Purpose

A. Authority and Powers

1. The Board of Directors of Badin Shores Resort Owners Association (“BSR”) has been vested with the authority to develop, implement and enforce a general scheme of rules and regulations for BSR that shall be consistent with the BSR Declaration of Covenants (the “Declaration”) and By-Laws of Badin Shores Resort Owners’ Association (the “By-Laws”). The rules and regulations set out herein (the “Rules and Regulations,”) are established by the Board of Directors pursuant to the powers thus granted under the governing documents and NCGS §47F.

B. Purpose

1. The purpose of the Rules and Regulations is (1) to assure equitable and safe access to BSR services, social and recreational activities, and BSR facilities for each Homeowner of BSR (“Homeowner” as used herein shall include a Homeowner’s family (as defined in the BSR Declaration of Covenants and Restrictions for Badin Shores Resort Owners’ Association, Inc.); (2) to establish a fair, impartial method for enforcing all rules and regulations, and (3) to maintain a structure to manage BSR Common Property and charge authorized user fees and violation penalties.

C. Applicability

1. BSR Rules and Regulations shall govern the access and use of all BSR’s facilities, Common Property, amenities and services (herein, collectively “Common Property”) and shall apply to and be enforceable as to the Homeowners, families of Homeowners, all categories of visitors and rental occupants. All Homeowners, families of Homeowners and visitors are expected to be familiar with the rules and regulations established herein regulating the use of the Common Property and services so that the high standards of BSR may be maintained and the overall comfort and convenience of such persons promoted.

II. Behavior Standards

A. Homeowner, Guest and Visitor Behavior Standards

1. Homeowners, guests and visitors are expected to behave in an appropriate and courteous manner consistent with BRS Rules and Regulations. Inappropriate or offensive behavior may result in the suspension of services and privileges and/or imposition of a fine. Homeowners are responsible and accountable for their guest and visitor compliance with BSR Rules and Regulations. (BSR Declaration of Covenants and Restrictions – Section 8.14)

2. The use of Common Property is conditional upon the compliance with all BSR Rules and Regulations. Disciplinary action will be taken against all those subject to these Rules and Regulations for any and all violations of these Rules and Regulations. (BSR Declaration of Covenants and Restrictions – Section 8.15)

3. Harassment or abuse (physical, sexual, verbal or otherwise) of any BSR Employee, BSR Board of Directors (BOD) Member, BSR Contractor, or BSR Volunteer is prohibited. Homeowners and guests will not reprimand or discipline or attempt to discipline any BSR employee for any reason.

4. Complaints, criticisms or suggestions concerning employee service should be in writing, signed and addressed to the Operations Manager or President of the BSR Board of Directors. (See Section B – Complaint Process)

5. No Homeowner, Guest or Visitor may request or require special personal services from any employee of BSR. (BSR Declaration of Covenants and Restrictions – Section 1.4 and 1.5)

6. No Homeowner, Guest or Visitor may use Common Property or BSR equipment, tools or materials for personal use or profit. (BSR Declaration of Covenants and Restrictions – Section 1.4 and 1.5)

B. Complaint process

1. Homeowner complaints related to concerns and potential violations of the Bylaws, Declaration of Covenant and the BSR Rules and Regulations should be submitted in writing to the BSR Operations Manager or BSR Board of Directors President. Lessee and visitor complaints should be issued through the sponsoring Homeowner.

2. Upon receipt of a complaint, BSR staff shall review the content for jurisdiction and when finding authority, assign the complaint for investigation.

3. Complaints received alleging violation outside the jurisdictional authority of the BSR shall notify the complainant it does not fall in BSR authority.

4. The Board shall notify the complainant and the respondent in any written complaint filed with the Board of the disposition of the case.

C. BSR Board of Directors Meeting - Homeowners Code of Conduct

1. No one is permitted to speak to the BSR BOD during a meeting unless recognized by the BSR BOD President or Chair.

2. No demonstrations, including cheering, yelling, whistling, handclapping and foot stomping which disrupts, disturbs or otherwise impedes the orderly conduct are permitted.

3. Homeowners may register in advance to speak during a comment period (if included in the meeting agenda):

- a) Those who wish to speak must sign up in writing (on a sheet provided by the BSR BOD at the meeting time) prior to town hall or comment period. Homeowners must provide first and last name, lot number and the subject matter upon which they wish to speak.
- b) Addressing the BSR BOD shall be limited to (3) minutes unless such time is ended by the BSR BOD President for good cause.
- c) Once recognized by the BSR BOD President/Chair, Homeowners are required to speak from podium and must state full name, lot number and the subject matter you are addressing
- d) Home owners shall speak in a civil and courteous manner; and may not yell, scream or use inappropriate language.
- e) BSR BOD Members are not expected or required to respond, answer questions or ask questions
- f) Those in attendance will respect the rights of others and shall not create noise or other disturbances so as to disrupt or disturb persons who are addressing the BSR BOD, or otherwise impede the orderly conduct of the comment period.
- g) Only Homeowners address the BSR BOD during a comment period. Guests, Visitors or Lessees may not be recognized.

4. The BSR BOD has the authority to amend the Homeowner's Code of Conduct as any time.

III. General Rules
